Thank you for applying for employment at Maine Sport. We are an outdoor outfitter who believes that our customers are our most important asset. We depend on our employees to provide a courteous, attentive, and friendly atmosphere for our customers. Members of our staff are team players who recognize the importance of cooperation and communication in their daily work. They are courteous and respectful to customers and co-workers alike, and willingly abide by and support the operation standards of the company. They report to work on time in accordance with our dress standards with the understanding that their job as a sales professional is to sell our products with the highest level of energy and enthusiasm. In return, our company provides a safe and comfortable work environment with a chance to make a good wage with good benefits, and an opportunity to participate in a dynamic, growing company. If hired, your success at Maine Sport will depend heavily on your level of enthusiasm and initiative.
